

R.C. Olmstead CAMS-ii Executive Forum

R.C. Olmstead will host a CAMS-ii Executive Forum in Monroe, MI on Thursday afternoon, November 14th. The afternoon session, including lunch for the participants, will be held at the Quality Inn in Monroe, MI. The Executive Forum is free, however, seating is limited to the first 15 registrations.

The Executive Forum focused on the following challenges facing CEO's today:

- How your credit union can provide personalized services through Innovative technology designed to promote new opportunities for new member growth.
- How to maximize account access while significantly eliminating systems management.

Additionally, our participants will learn first-hand from CAMS-ii customer Michael Barr, President/CEO of Commodore Perry Federal Credit Union located in Oak Harbor, OH their solution needs, evaluation process and overall CAMS-ii benefits.

Register today, space is limited.
